Welcome Dr. Daniel Kirchheimer!

I am pleased to welcome my new associate to the Sacco Eye Group, Dr. Daniel Kirchheimer! Dr. Kirchheimer is a Vestal high school graduate and attended Binghamton University for his undergraduate training. He received his Doctor of Optometry degree from the State University of New York College of Optometry in New York City. Dr. Kirchheimer completed his advanced training at the St. Albans and Syracuse Veterans Administration Hospitals. Dr. Kirchheimer has experience in all areas of family eye care and will bring a wealth of knowledge and fresh ideas to our practice.

Dr. Kirchheimer is married to his wife Heather and they recently welcomed home their first child, William. Dr. Kirchheimer is an active Vestal volunteer firefighter and enjoys giving back to his community. The Kirchheimers live in Vestal.

I am sure you will enjoy meeting Dr. Kirchheimer and getting to know him. I look forward to working with him to keep all of our patients eyes healthy!

Sincerely,
Dr. Sacco
